THE OLD MAN AND THE SEA
Ernest Hemingway

An old fisherman's epic struggle for one last great fish is a classic fable of the 20th century.

Starring Academy Award-winning actor Rod Steiger as Santiago and Ramon Estevez as Manolin
Rebroadcast, as a tribute to Steiger, who died 9 July 2002, this dramatisation by Bob Sherman of Ernest Hemingway's classic novel originally aired in 1999 to mark the centenary of Hemingway's birth.

Steiger's unmistakable presence is at the centre of this production, as the old man in this spare and powerful tale.

The book was described by William Faulkner as "one of the best American novels ever written". Hemingway was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature for The Old Man and The Sea.
